

Road to Freedom

Week 5 - Forgiveness that Frees

First Name and last initial: _____ Date: _____

Take your time with Week 5. Join in with what Jesus is saying to you as you do this assignment. Let Him search your heart and be as honest and transparent as you can. For Mastermind and Elite 1on1 coaching members, you will not be alone on this painful, but freeing path. Regular guidelines apply. It is always optional to submit your homework. For this homework, you may want to use a journal for your answers.

What perceptions of forgiveness have you believed or used? Identify any myths you had believed.

Draw away, contemplate, and with the Source (Jesus) search the crevices of your heart. Choose 1-3 persons whom have hurt you so deeply, that you have not been able to forgive. Describe that incident and/or memory which caused the emotional pain.

What is the difference between confession and repentance? When are each necessary for healing?

Who do you need to ask forgiveness to? (DO NOT point your finger and confess your holding a grudge against them, this is between you and God). Examples: You continually blamed your brother for things you did as a child: you may need to ask him for forgiveness and your parent/guardian for forgiveness for lying to them).

What do you need or want to receive forgiveness for?

First Name and last initial: _____ Date: _____

Who do you need to forgive?

Describe any pit you might have dug for yourself by holding grudges and unforgiveness.

What memories from the past keep surfacing, keep circling in your thoughts, or even dreams and nightmares, that you cannot get rid of? Describe 1 to 3 of them.

What persons/events have you buried under the carpet?

Explain an incidence when you festered a grudge, anger, or unforgiveness, then later forgave the person(s) involved.

Did you ever take something out on someone who didn't deserve your "beating"? Explain.

What does it mean to you to forgive from the heart?

Who would you like to forgive from the heart? Then, are you ready?
